

ASSOCIATION OF SPECIAL LIBRARIES OF THE PHILIPPINES, INC.

National Library of the Philippines
Rm. 301, T.M. Kalaw St., Ermita, Manila 1000
Tel. No. (632) 523-0068
E-mail: aslpboard@yahoo.com

1st NCSLP

“MOVING FORWARD: MANAGING LIBRARIES & INFORMATION CENTERS IN A FAST CHANGING ENVIRONMENT”

October 19-21, 2011

Hotel Supreme Convention Plaza, Baguio City

PROFILE OF SPEAKERS:

1) ATTY. ANTONIO M. SANTOS

Director

National Library of the Philippines

T.M. Kalaw, Ermita, Manila

Prior to his appointment as Director of the National Library, Atty. Santos was the Law Librarian at the College of Law, University of the Philippines. He was accorded with Outstanding Professional Librarian of the Year (1998) by the Professional Regulation Commission, as well as Outstanding Librarian (2002) by the Congress of Southeast Asian Librarians. He is also a past president of both the Philippine Librarians Association, Inc., and the Philippine Group of Law Librarians.

As PRC Outstanding Librarian of the Year 1998, he was cited for his outstanding accomplishments toward the development of the librarianship profession through active participation in the implementation of the "Philippine Librarianship Act" as past President of the Philippine Librarians Association, Inc. (PLAI); for active participation in the drafting and the implementation of the continuing professional education for librarians; and for having institutionalized the holding of PLAI regional assemblies, seminars, and outreach programs to touch base with librarians throughout the country. (PAARL Wikipedia)

2) JOHANN FREDERICK CABBAB

Dean

School of Library & Information Science

University of the Philippines, Diliman

Mr. Cabbab is also a Professor at UP-SLIS from 2007 to present and has set-up, design and maintain several websites of the UP-SLIS among others. Prior to his return in the academe, he has been the Managing Editor, Writer, Photographer and Graphic Artist of several magazines. He served as Course Director, Lecturer, Team Member or Participant in several projects, seminars, conferences and workshops.

He was awarded the “1st PLAI Outstanding Research Award” for “The Development of an Interactive Multimedia Program in Library & Information Science” by the Philippine Librarians Association, Inc. in 2000.

Education:

- Master in Library & Information Science at the University of the Philippines – Diliman (1999)
- Bachelor in Library Science at the University of the Philippines – Diliman (1994)

3) AMBETH R. OCAMPO

*Associate Professor and Chair
Department of History
Ateneo de Manila University*

is Chairman of the Department of History, Ateneo de Manila University who writes a widely read opinion page column for the Philippines Daily Inquirer. He served as Chairman, National Historical Commission of the Philippines (2002-2011) and concurrently Chairman, National Commission for Culture and the Arts (2005-2007). He is a multi-awarded Filipino historian, academic, journalist and author.

Education:

- Doctorate in Philosophy in Southeast Asia History at the University of London School of Oriental & African Studies
- A graduate course in the University of the Philippines – Diliman
- BA & MA in Philippine Studies at the De La Salle University, Manila

4) RICHARD KÜNZEL

*Director
Goethe-Institute Philippinen*

He was a travel guide with trekking groups in the Himalayas (Nepal, Pakistan, India, and Tibet) and later in Columbia (South America) and Yemen (Arab Peninsula). In 1980, he entered the Goethe-Institut in Mannheim, Germany and was later on posted at German Singapore Institute (in-charge of curriculum design for metal technicians). He was assigned at Goethe-Institut in Murnau (Bavaria), Istanbul, Turkey, Cairo, and Egypt. In 2001, he became the director of Goethe-Institut Almaty and since 2007, the director of Goethe-Institut Manila. He has published book on night trains and wrote essays on travelling in Central Asia.

Education:

- Studied Slavic Philology, Theater and South-East European History at Ludwig-Maximilian University Munich, finished with Master examination.
- He has a diploma in Russian interpreting.

5) XIN LI

*Associate University Librarian for Strategic Initiatives
Cornell University Library, USA
Email: xin.li@cornell.edu*

She serves on the eight-member governing body of the Cornell library system, the Library Executive Group, that provides directions, sets policies, plans and allocates resources for 18 subject libraries and more than 400 staff. Xin Li has 17 years of experience working in large research libraries, first at Yale, then at Cornell. Her experience covers a broad range of library operations, such as technical and public services, financial management and library administration. Currently, she is living in Taiwan temporarily and works remotely for Cornell. She is the coordinator for the deep collaboration project between Columbia and Cornell (2CUL). She explores and oversees library's collaboration with research libraries in East Asia

Education:

- B.A. in Germanic Studies at Xi'an Foreign Language Institute in China (1984)
- Master of Library and Information Science at Southern Connecticut State University (1992)
- EMBA (2005) at Cornell University, USA
- Master's degree study in Germanic Linguistics, Philosophy Department, University of Konstanz, Germany, 1988-1990 (study interrupted by marriage and move to the U.S.)

6) YUKO SAWADA

*Deputy Director
Planning and Coordination Division, Library
Institute of Developing Economies, Japan*

Her recent work, " Aiming at Improving Access to Research Output through the Institutional Repository" co-authored with Kanako Sakai presented at International Conference of Asian Special Libraries (ICoASL2011) February 10-12, 2011 was judged as second best paper during the said conference.

Education:

- M.S.L.S from the School of Library and Information Science, The Catholic University of America, U.S.A., May 1996.

Her talk will contain the following topics:

1. Open Access and self-archiving
2. To improve access to our research output effectively
 - 2.1. Development of ARRIDE (Institutional Repository)
 - 2.2. Linkage with outside database
3. To provide efficient access to scholarly resources outside the library
 - 3.1. Introducing link resolver
 - 3.2. Expanding OPAC capabilities

7) ALMA DEGALA-PROSPEROSO

Assistant Librarian
World Health Organization, Regional Office for the Western Pacific
United Nations, Manila

Her principal responsibility in the WHO/WPRO Library is to assist and monitor the continuing development of the Western Pacific Region Index Medicus (WPRIM) project including the enhancement of its database. This includes collaboration and networking with the 37 Member Countries of the WHO Western Pacific Region. Member countries that are now involved in the development of WPRIM are Australia, Brunei, China, Cambodia, Fiji, Japan, Malaysia, Mongolia, Papua New Guinea, Philippines, Republic of Korea, Singapore and Vietnam. My supplementary duties in library includes assisting in the management of the library' administrative and financial matters and to support bibliographic, reference and circulation services.

Education:

- Bachelor of Education major in Library Science at Centro Escolar University, Manila Philippines (1992)
- Master in Public Management at the University of the Philippines Open University (ongoing)

8) BEN-HUR VILLANUEVA

International Artist

Ben-Hur Villanueva is a Filipino sculptor, painter, educator, lecturer, and art entrepreneur based in Baguio City. He and a small group of fellow artists - visual artist Santi Bose, filmmaker Kidlat Tahimik, and National Artist for Visual Art Benedicto Cabrera, among others, established the Baguio Arts Guild (BAG). He has also served as a president for the Society of Philippine Sculptors (SPS), as Art director for the Ephpheta Foundation for the Blind, Inc., and as vice president-treasurer for Unesco's International Art Association (IAA).

Villanueva is best known as a sculptor, working with brass, metal, and wood. He still holds regular art exhibitions around the Philippines, and also occasionally exhibits in New York, Paris, Tokyo, Singapore, Helsinki, and Havana. Notable sculptures by Villanueva include:

- Kapit-Bisig - a commemorative Narra wood sculpture of four figures locking arms, which was presented by President Corazon Aquino to the Filipino people on the first year anniversary of the 1986 EDSA Revolution.^[2]
- Among Supremo - a sculpture of Andres Bonifacio at Global City, Taguig City
- Thy Will Be Done - A sculpture at the campus of Saint Paul University Quezon City
- St. Aloysius Gonzaga - A sculpture at the campus of Saint Louis University in Baguio city
- Risen Christ - A statue at Caleruega, Nasugbu, Batangas

Teaching Career:

Villanueva spent 30 years teaching arts at the Ateneo De Manila University in Quezon City, Philippines. In interviews he says this experience convicted him of the importance of the school motto, "Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam" (For the greater Glory of God and A Man for Others). "Every individual has his/her artistic inclinations and propensity be it visual, music, dance, literary, or fashion and so he/she has the right to enhance and utilize it creatively," he is quoted as saying. "Sharing it with others is what makes our life more meaningful and blessed." (Source: Wikipedia)

Published Papers:

- Prosperoso, Alma and Yap, Joseph. Essentials of a health librarian and role of a specialized national library association. Healthbeat Magazine of the Department of Health, National Center for Health Promotion, January-February 2010.
- Dizon, Julio, Jr., Prosperoso, Alma D. and Raby, Charles P. Western Pacific Region Index Medicus (WPRIM): a tool for global accessibility of health research in the Western Pacific Region. In: Positioning the Profession: the Tenth International Congress on Medical Librarianship, Brisbane, Australia, (1-19). August 31-September 4, 2009.

9) REYSA C. ALENZUELA

Director

Thomas Jefferson Information Center, Manila

Before she became the Director of Thomas Jefferson Information Center (TJIC) in 2007, she was with University of Iloilo holding the same position at the University's Learning Resource Center.

Education:

- Bachelor of Education Major in Library Science at the University of San Agustin- Iloilo City (1998)
- Master of Library and Information Science at the University of the Philippines-Diliman (2003)
- Doctor of Philosophy Major in Educational Management at the University of Iloilo (2007)

10) VINCENT ABRIGO

Associate Relations

Knowledge for Development Center

World Bank in the Philippines

Mr. Abrigo handles requests for documents and information related to the Access to Information policy, and assists the Communications team in communicating and training staff and stakeholders on the policy. He also helps organize knowledge sharing and communication events, including conferences, workshops, consultations, videoconferences, and exhibits and performs other information management functions at the World Bank KDC. He has been a volunteer of the Youth Coalition for Sexual and Reproductive Rights with office in Ottawa, CANADA from January 2008 to March 2011.

Education:

- Master of Professional Studies in Development Communication at the University of the Philippines Open University (continuing)
- Bachelor in Library & Information Science at the University of the Philippines – Diliman (2004)

11) MILAGROS SANTOS-ONG

Chief, Library Services, Supreme Court of the Philippines

SC Senior Chief Staff Officer (Director III)

She has been invited several times to be a resource person in several conferences and seminars here and abroad. She also wrote several books on legal research published locally.

EDUCATION:

- LLB at the University of the Philippines - Diliman (1986)
- Master of Arts in Information Studies at the University of Sheffiled, England (1982)

- Master of Library Science at the University of the Philippines – Diliman (1977)
- BSBA at the University of the Philippines – Diliman (1973)

AWARDS

- 2005 Outstanding Librarian given by Philippine Regulatory Commission
- 2005 Chief Justice Awards for Outstanding Service in the Judiciary
- 2005 Service Award given by the Philippine Librarians Association
- 2005 Appreciation and Recognition Award, Supreme Court Action Program & Judicial Reforms
- 2010 Presidential Citations Awards accorded by the Office of the President, Malacañang Palace